CAR PARK – there are several loose slates on the roof so for your safety and the protection of your cars, we have coned off those spaces. We apologise for the inconvenience, hopefully it will be resolved soon.

- FROM ANNET AND CHRIS LUKKIEN - hello there lovely people from WBC - We are still receiving your newsletter but it is time to say our goodbye. We have now been in the Netherlands for 1.5 years and are slowly settling down in Amersfoort. We are currently attending an Arabic-Dutch church with a protestant background, an intercultural church. Both of us are working with relief organisations and are traveling to countries like Yemen and Syria. Annet works with Dorcas and Chris with ZOA both Christian organisations bringing lasting change to people in need. We had a difficult year with two mothers passing away at the beginning of this year. We felt blessed that we were close by and present to support them in their final days before they were going to meet their Lord Jesus. We miss you all and wish you all the best. Our contact details are available from the office.

'THE TIMES THEY ARE A CHANGIN'! - nothing happens at WBC without you! We rely on our church family to prayerfully consider how you might feel called to serve. We need volunteers! Volunteers for refreshments, volunteers to help with cleaning (when Jo is away), small DIY/maintenance issues, light gardening, to name a few. Please contact the Office if you can help.

- PRAYER OPPORTUNITIES – Please note change of date - we have been reviewing the current prayer activities in WBC and would like to give the opportunity for people involved in the existing prayer activities, to get more involved should they wish to, and also allow others to join us in providing prayer support. There are a number of prayer initiatives going on all the time - Sunday morning Prayer, the prayer chain and ongoing prayer ministry. So, if you would like to be part of the WBC prayer team and would like to know more, please come along to a meeting on 19th August at 7.30 pm in Natters or contact one of the 2 Paula's.
